Educational talks and presentations.

The English Wine industry is growing fast, with viticulture being the fastest-growing sector in agriculture in the UK. Over the past ten years, the Wilson family has certainly learnt a lot about it. From how to plant vines and look after them, to how to set up a vineyard business, tourist attraction, wedding venue, and online platform. And of course . . . how to make the wine itself. This along with Alice's Qualified Teacher Status and previous life spent as a teacher in Outstanding settings means we are well-equipped to deliver presentations and educational days to a range of audiences.

So, if you're looking to teach your team more about English Wine, develop the knowledge of your students, or fancy adding something a little different to your Professional Development program. We can certainly help.

Will Lyons, Daily Mail Wine Critic "A huge thank you for last night, extremely enjoyable and I thought it went very well. Relaxed and convivial and Alice was fantastic!"

Wine Tasting Brought to you.

If you have the space and need to fill it - let us bring the experience to you. Whether you are looking for a full evening's entertainment or someone to talk and engage with your group. We have the package to suit all.

Talk and Tasting: Alice will welcome your guests with a talk on the history of the farm and a brief explanation as to how the vineyard was developed. This will then be followed by a guided tasting of our wines.

Blind Tasting Experience: Looking to get a group talking? This is a great way to integrate some light wine chat, with lots of tasting and discussion. Guests will be told about the vineyard and the family journey into the wine world before being presented with a number of wine flights. Each wine flight has two wines. One from little wold and one from around the world. Participants are not told which is which - and have to try to guess which is from East Yorkshire! In simple terms - a quiz. . . with wine!

Each of these packages can be tailored to your requirements

Guests will then sample a further 3 wines, the host giving a brief talk on each in 15 minute intervals. A lovely way to take in the views, while learning more about the wine/vines in a fun and informal way
